County to host meeting with Kingman City Commission on May 26

The Kingman County Commission will host a joint meeting with the Kingman City Commission on May 26 at the Kingman County Courthouse, 130 N. Spruce, Kingman. The two governing bodies hold joint meetings periodically.

Commissioners and invited guests will share a meal at 6 p.m., served in the first floor lobby of the courthouse. The business portion of the meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in the main courtroom on the courthouse's third floor.

The agenda, set by the county commission as host, includes written reports from the county about progress to date on the NW 10th Ave. project and a status update on the Kingman County Activity Center. Three items are on the agenda for discussion. They are: Emergency Medical Services (EMS), economic development, and downtown development in the City of Kingman.

The public is welcome and encouraged to attend.
