Heavy truck, trailer tags can be renewed through February

Heavy truck and trailer tag renewal letters for 2017 mailed earlier this month by the state gave an incorrect date for the deadline to renew these tags.

The letter incorrectly stated that the vehicle plates expired on Dec. 31, 2016.

“We apologize for the date on the letter being wrong. Kansas statute allows a 2 month grace period for trucks registered for 16,000 pounds or more and trailers to renew by February 28, 2017,” states a note from the state’s Division of Vehicles.

“Please inform your customer if they call that their plate does not expire until February 28, 2017 and no penalties will be charged to the vehicle owner if the plate is renewed by the last day in February,” the note states.

Anyone with additional questions about these tag renewals is encouraged to call Mark Schemm at 785-296-3054.
